United Food Service

Call:
9-5211

Mike Williams, of No. 7 Yellowstone St., is asking his mother, "T-bone or sirloin, tonight mom?" The Williams find that they can eat steak for the price of hamburger with the United Plan. Why don't you be a smart and thrifty housewife like Mike's Mom and call us today?

UNITED FOOD PLAN is the modern way to delicious meals and savings too, on your food bill.

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Dear Friends:

Montana State University is happy to present another first class basketball schedule to the University students and Montana basketball fans.

Membership in the Skyline Conference means that some of the finest basketball teams in the nation will appear in our Field House. Wyoming, Utah University and Brigham Young University have all won national titles in past years.

The Field House, now in the fifth season, has proved to be most successful as a means of creating interest in basketball.

We plan to continue to bring the best teams possible to the campus for the entertainment of students and people interested in basketball.

STAN THE RAM RENNING

Renning, whose bid to the famous all-star game was announced about two weeks ago, was forced to decline the bid because of a knee injury suffered in the Montana-Montana State College game last Nov. 15. Although Renning and MSU officials felt that Stan might be ready for action by Dec. 30, they couldn't assure Shrine game officials that the knee would be fully healed. So, in the best interests of the West team, Renning graciously withdrew.

Stan the Ram, however, is still considered a member of the team and his picture and a short summary of his career will appear in the Shrine Game program.

"We sincerely wish Stan could play on the West team," was the comment of West squad coach Jack Curtice of Stanford.

"Who wants it?" seems to be the question of Grizzly Terry Screnar and Vandal Whaylon Coleman as the ball appears to be about to drop on their heads. Center Dave Shelby is pictured in center, while Vandal John Liveious (right) waits for the rebound.

Grizzly guard Vince Ignatowicz drives around Idaho's Hal Damiano (42) for a bucket against the Vadals. Ignatowicz hooped 21 points.

★ Sportswriters Bob Reagan and John Honey check the United Press teletype to see what's new on the national athletic scene. (Top photo).

★ Copy readers Teddy Roe, Duane Stallman and Don Dehon receive feminine advice from copy editor Vera Swanson. Journalism, by the way, is one profession where the ladies needn't take a back seat to their masculine contemporaries.

FIRST place in a national news writing contest entered by more than 100 college newspapers is the latest honor accorded to the Montana Kaimin . . . which has reported its share of campus catastrophies, political battles, crises, and just everyday news for more than 50 years.

Kaimin Advisor Prof. Ed Dugan checks a prospective advertising layout with Ad Manager Anne Thomas, with salesman Tim Vanek looding on.

. . . The Montana Kaimin Staff

The news writing award came from Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, and it was based on the Kaimin's "excellent" coverage of last spring's controversy between the State Board of Education and former President Dr. Carl McFarland. The Kaimin staff at Missoula twice revamped their whole May 6 edition just before press time, and a third edition was finally put to press after Editor Ted Hulbert telephoned a story from Helena regarding Dr. McFarland's resignation.

Local Sigma Delta Chi president Carl Hilliard accepted the award at the recent SDX convention in San Diego.

Editor Ted Hulbert (right) and Vera Swanson go through their nightly ritual of telling makeup man Rod Fisher where to place what. "It won't fit in that corner," seems to be Fisher's comment.

..... The SPECTATOR Salutes . . .

... The KAIMIN STAFF ★

Society Editor Karen Zander (left) appears wide-eyed at looking over a recent Kaimin edition, but Editor Ted Hulbert and Vera Swanson seem to be taking it more in stride.

The GRIZZLY Guide . . .

This season marks the fourth year of Frosty Cox' tenure at Montana State University, and Grizzly fans can be assured that the Grizzlies will bear the Cox trademark: a team well-schooled in fundamentals and the finer points of the cage game. Cox teams have recorded a 39-31 record at the University, but have branded themselves as squads to be reckoned with in the tough Skyline Conference. Montana came in third in the league in 1956-57, and tied for fourth last season. Overall picture shows that Montana will continue to be a contender in what has been termed one of the country's toughest basketball leagues.

Cox first gained national prominence as head coach of the Colorado Buffaloes. His teams compiled a 120-55 record in the old Rocky Mountain Conference from 1936 through 1947. In 1938 the Cox-coached Colorado team finished second in the National Invitational Tournament in New York City, defeating NYU 48-47, and bowing to Temple 34-69.

In 1940, the Buffaloes won the NIT with wins over DePaul 52-37, and Duquesne 51-40.

Frosty is noted nationally as a basketball authority and is much in demand as a clinical strategist for coaching schools. He also was a member of the national rules committee.

The Frosh Coach . . .

Hal Sherbeck, former outstanding Grizzly football, basketball and baseball player, now is serving his third year as frosh basketball and football coach and head baseball coach.

Sherbeck moved up to the University after a highly successful coaching record at Missoula County High School.

After graduating from Montana State University in 1952, Hal took over as head football coach at MCHS. His Spartans grid teams won the State Class AA championship three of the four years he was head coach. He was named Montana's Coach of the Year after his first championship season.

At the University he was captain of the 1951-52 Grizzly basketball team and was elected to the Montana Basketball Hall of Fame for his fine play.

A native of Big Sandy, Sherbeck is rapidly being recognized as one of the best freshman mentors in the league. He has the ability and youthfulness to handle young Grizzlies capably, and his freshman products have proven as varsity members that they were well-coached in their first year at the University. His wife, Donna, currently holds the Montana woman's singles tennis championship.

Other Important Men . . .

"Hey Holly—how about a towel?" is the familiar cry that faces equipment manager Ruppert Holland daily, and the speed and dispatch shown by Holly is a tribute to the efficiency with which his job is operated. Now in his third year with the Grizzly staff, Holland sometimes is the "forgotten man" when laurels are passed out. But every Grizzly athlete will testify to his efficiency in the important job he holds.

Trainer Naseby Rhinehart Sr. is one of the most respected tape-and-injury men in the Skyline conference, and it has been through his efforts of the past 20 years that MSU now has modern trainer's facilities. "Nase" took over the training job shortly after graduating from the University in 1934, and he has held it ever since. He starred on Grizzly football basketball and track teams during his undergraduate years.

DAN BALKO—Junior letterman . . . 5-11 backcourt ace from Great Falls who is pointing for All-Skyline honors this season . . . A driving, hustling player who has all the shots in the book . . . carries over a 10.8 scoring average from his sophomore season . . . is most accurate with a southpaw jump shot, but also likes to drive for the bucket.

DAVE SHELBY—Tallest man (6-8) on the squad and a letterman from last season . . . not figured to be a starter but will definitely be of help at the center position . . . possesses a deadly hook shot and has improved somewhat over last year . . . hails from Albany, Oregon.

DUANE RUEGSEGER—A sophomore center who has the potential to become one of the finest pivot men in the Skyline . . . stands 6-6 and possesses a good hook shot with either hand . . . is fighting Suttles for the starting center job . . . former All-Stater at Billings high school.

MIKE ALLEN — Another promising soph whose shooting eye and hustle reminds Cox of another Cut Bank product who made good with the Grizzlies, Ed Argenbright . . . Stands 6-0 and is a deadly shot from out . . . Will see plenty of action this year.

PAUL MILLER—A sophomore who's being groomed for a possible starting job next season . . . a 6-0 boy from Newton, Kansas, who has the potential to become a fine back court man . . . shoots well and hustles all the way.

GRIZZLY Basketball Domicile . . .

Formally opened Dec. 18, 1953, the Montana State University Fieldhouse has since drawn over 250,000 basketball fans and is considered one of the best basketball arenas in the west. One of the most surprising facts about the gigantic structure is the speed with which it was built. Governor J. Hugo Aronson broke ground for the House, in March of 1953 and the building was completed less than eight months later. Another unique facet of the arena are the huge laminated arches which support the structure. Each of the six arches weighs six tons and, up to that time, were the largest ever constructed. General contractors for the 'House, were Hightower and Lubrecht of Missoula.

The CENTURY CLUB is:

... composed of some 300 men throughout the state who donate $100 yearly to the MSU athletic program. Through their efforts the University athletic program is assured of a sound financial footing. And, because of them, Montana will continue to produce athletic teams of which the people of the state can be proud.

● The SPECTATOR Presents . . .

Defining norms, mores, group interaction and social stratification couldn't be more pleasant than with 19-year-old Roxanne Shelton, winsome sophomore lass from Billings who's majoring in sociology at Montana State University.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shelton of Billings, dark-haired Roxanne is a member of Delta Gamma sorority, is a member of the ROTC Angel Flight, and also was a dorm officer last year. She lists swimming and tennis as her favorite hobby, but also likes to sit down with a good book or listen to records. But, judging from the good looks of this week's Spectator Lovely, Roxanne doesn't spend many long evenings at home in DG house.

She's another Spectator Girl who unanimously approves of our feature angle. "I think it adds a lot of color and variety to programs, but I don't care for cheesecake and sexy extremes," comments the 37-25-36 Lovely.

● Grizzly Potpourri . . .

By Bob Gilluly

Freshman basketballer Ron Quilling of Sidney not only performs well on the hardwoods, but also has a fine baritone voice. He was a soloist during the annual Christmas Convocation on campus last week.

Frosty Cox' emphasis on scholarship among his cagers is borne out by the fact that only three of the Grizzlies are physical education majors. The squad members and their majors include: Dan Balko and Vince Ignatowicz, chemistry. Marv Suttles, secondary education. Dave Shelby, Darrol Dunham and Tom McEacheron, physical education. Kay Roberts, physical therapy. Duane Ruegsegger and Charles Hoot, business administration. Mike Allen and Gale Hendriksen, pre-medicine. Steve Kirk, physics. Terry Screnar and Gary Kanz, pre-law. And Paul Miller, sociology.

It will be somewhat of a homecoming for Dave Shelby and Gary Kanz when the cagers embark for two games with Oregon Monday and Tuesday. Shelby is a native of Albany, Oregon, and Kanz haails from Salme.

Grizzly nicknames include "Iiggy" Ignatowicz, "Rip" Ruegsegger, "Hooks" Dunham, and "Goose" McEacheron.

Next Grizzly home game is Dec. 27, when the Silvertips host Montana State College. The Bobcats scored a close 51-49 win at Bozeman Dec. 10.
